HOLIDAY SEASON 2012
BIRTH OF A NEW TRADITION!

AS CHRISTMAS APPROACHES, IT'S TIME to think outside the box! Who says a gift needs to fit in a shirt box, wrapped in wrapping paper?

Everyone - yes everyone gets their hair cut. How about a gift certificate from your local hair salon or barber?

Consider a gym membership or aerobic or yoga classes gift certificate. Appropriate for all ages who are thinking about some health improvement. Who wouldn't appreciate getting their car detailed? Most detail shops and car washes offer gift certificates or a book of gift certificates.

Perhaps a grateful gift receiver would like his/her driveway sealed, or lawn mowed for the summer, or driveway plowed all winter, or games at the local golf course.

There are an array of locally owned restaurants offering gift certificates. Or how about a half dozen breakfasts at a local breakfast or lunch diner. How many people couldn't use an oil change for their car, truck or motorcycle, done at a shop run by local working guy!

Thinking about a heartfelt gift for mom? Mom would love the services of a local cleaning person for a day, month or year!

Computers can use a tune-up now and then! Buy a gift certificate from a local business that is available for upgrades or repairs.

Looking for something more personal? Local crafters spin their own wool and knit them into scarves. They make jewelry, pottery and/or beautiful wooden boxes. Plan your holiday outings at local, owner and operated restaurants and leave your server a nice big holiday tip. How about going out to see a play or ballet at your hometown theatre. Musicians need love too, so find a venue showcasing local bands. Leave the mailman, trash pick-up guy or babysitter a nice BIG tip.

Christmas is about caring and about small businesses that keep plugging away to follow their dreams. And, when we care about friends and neighbors, we care about our communities, and the benefits come back to us in ways we couldn't imagine.

THIS is the new American Christmas tradition.

This is a revolution of caring about each other, and isn't that what Christmas is about?

PACKING COOKIES FOR SHIPPING

NOTHING WARMS THE HEARTS OF out-of-town relatives and friends like receiving a package of goodies from home. And when the parcel contains a pretty tin packed with home-baked cookies, their delight is undeniable. To ensure the mouth-watering morsels are at their best upon arrival, review these packing pointers.

Bake and completely cool cookies just before packing and shipping so they're as fresh as possible.

Determine which cookies to mail based on their fragility. Many bars, brownies and drop, refrigerator and sandwich cookies are fairly sturdy and mail well. Some cutouts and shaped varieties are a little more delicate and more likely to break. Cookies requiring refrigeration are poor choices to ship because they will spoil.

To help the cookies stay fresh and intact, wrap them in bundles of two (for drop cookies, place their bottoms together) with plastic wrap. It's best to wrap bars individually.

Pack crisp and soft cookies in separate tins or boxes. If they're packed together, the moisture from the soft cookies will seep into the crisp cookies, making them lose their crunch. Consider shipping soft cookies by express mail so they'll be moist upon arrival.

To help retain the best flavor, don't put strong-flavored cookies (like gingersnaps) and mild-flavored ones (like sugar cookies) in the same tin or plastic container.

Line a festive tin or box with crumpled waxed paper to help cushion your cookies. Snugly pack the cookies to within 1 inch of the top. Use crumpled waxed paper or bubble wrap to fill any gaps between the cookies. Add more waxed paper or bubble wrap over the last layer to cushion the cookies and prevent them from shifting during shipping. Close the tin, box or plastic container.

Place a layer of crumpled paper, bubble wrap or foam shipping peanuts in the bottom of a cardboard box that is slightly larger than your cookie tin/container. Set the tin/container on top, and then add more paper, bubble wrap or shipping peanuts.

Seal the box tightly with tape, label the top and sides of the package "Fragile and Perishable" and adhere your mailing label.

- 1/4 cup milk
- 1 box powdered sugar
- 1 tablespoon vanilla
- Nuts, optional

Mix butter, cocoa, milk and sugar together in a microwave safe bowl. Melt in microwave 1 1/2-2 1/2 minutes until butter has melted. Whip until mixture is smooth, add vanilla and nuts. Spray an 8 inch square pan with cooking spray and spread fudge in pan. Refrigerate for an hour or so until fudge is hard. Cut into squares for serving. Number of Servings: 16 -20

Using lightly moistened hands or a spoon, cover each marshmallow with some of the sweet potato mixture. Roll in some of the crushed cereal and place in a shallow baking dish or pan.
