OLD SCHOOL ARTISAN

MARCH 20TH MARKS THE FIRST day of spring! Spring can be symbolic of starting new projects, sewing new seeds and coming forth with new ideas. Some ideas may include remodeling your kitchen, revamping that basement or garage, or building an addition for a loved one. There are many contractors out there. Finding “the one” to take your vision and bring it to life can be difficult. Old School Artisan offers custom design, building and remodeling for all of your residential, commercial and historical needs.

My name is Robert Reeve, owner of Old School Artisan. I am a local contractor, operating in Cortland County and the surrounding areas. My company’s goal is to meet the individual needs of every client, with unique solutions and reliable professionalism. We work with our clients on an individual basis to achieve a result that suits them best. I have set out to work with a spirit of excellence. My promise to you is that when I start on your job, I don’t start another. Your project is my priority until the job is done. My mentor, my father, said it best,” Do one project, do it really well, and then move on”. Old School Artisan brings quality work in a turnkey fashion. This means less time is wasted waiting for sub-contractors, electricians or plumbers to finish a task. This results in less people at your home or business, and provides a personal experience you typically don’t get with bigger contracting companies or brokers.

We’re open for business Monday through Friday and can have flexible weekend hours if needed.

Call me today to book your next project! 315-447-7220 OR 607-745-9900.

Email: OldSchoolArtisan1@gmail.com

Like Old School Artisan on Facebook to see project before and after pictures.

I look forward to speaking with you soon.

MIKE’S FISH TANK FISH TANKS

THIS THE TIME OF YEAR when fish tanks are very popular. I am getting a lot of first time aquarium owners.

I want to remind people of a few things that are beneficial to your tank.

Set your tank up and let it run 24 hours before putting fish in it. If doing tropical fish,you want to be sure your temperature is stable. 78 to 80 degrees is perfect. A fluctuating temperature can cause fish to get sick.

Go easy if it’s a newly setup tank. Too many fish too soon will cause problems down the road, usually week 3 is when things go bad if too many fish.

Don’t add algae eaters until you see algae. Some people call them cleaner fish, they will clean your tank by eating the algae but no fish eats the waste or bad food that is lying on the bottom of your tank. For that you need to siphon the bottom of your tank once a month or so. This gets rid of all the crap that might be on the bottom of your tank.

Feed fish 3 times a day. Fish burn a lot of calories swimming and thus need 3 meals a day to really do good.

Feed small amounts. A fish stomach is about the size of their eye.

There is no way of knowing if tropicals and goldfish will mix. The goldfish like it cold and the tropicals like it warm.

Always take fish straight home after buying them and only let the bag float in your tank for 5 minutes, that will equalize the temperature. Floating longer can be deadly.

 Pets A Plenty is located in the Blockbuster Video Plaza, Rte 281 Cortland, 753-9213. Open 7 days a week. We now have a website. WWW.PETSAPLENTY.BIZ. check it out. I post care sheets, coupons, new animal arrivals, contests and more. Any questions, email me at friskyy@hotmail.com

J'S GRAND BISTRONOMIE

J's GRAND IS THE LATEST journey in the realm of food Jeff Uher has taken. His passion for food came at a young age. Since then he has worked in family restaurants, held corporate positions, owned his own businesses, and been recognized at various levels for his knowledge of food and wine. In looking for what to pursue at this point in his life, the corner of 2 E Main St. in Dryden became available. He has put together a small restaurant offering dine-in and take-out foods. He chose the name Bistronomie as it is a new term being used in the food world representative of good, casual food (Bistro) and of varied cooking styles and high quality (Gastronomie). J's Grand offers BBQ, smoked meats, country cooking, Cajun and Creole as well. Seafood is real passion and you will find dinner offerings of various fish, shellfish prepared in various ways. Also steaks, pork, poultry and other offerings presented at reasonable prices and with the finest ingredients.

His preparation is driven by a life of traveling. When he wanted to know how to prepare foods, he went directly there and worked side by side with local chefs. Attending many food conventions, he built a network of friends found at the top in the food industry. His love of the New Orleans culture and foods led to his spending over two weeks with people such as Paul Prudhomme, Warren Le Ruth, and Roland Huet. He loves introducing people to both

Creole and Cajun foods. Having lived in a dozen states he has a deep appreciation for regional diversity and his menu reflects the love of Southern fare developed by living in the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida and Arkansas. Comfort food doesn't even begin to describe the food southerners prepare. "There is such a passion for food in the South! It's built on traditions, heritage, ethnicity history connected to farming, canning, and food production he is on top of food trends. Elimination and limitation of processed foods, additives, and such items as high fructose corn syrup is always top of mind. With degrees and diplomas in medical training, nutrition, food safety and management he is ready to help you with ordering food that meets your needs or in discussing food trends and concerns.

Stop in and enjoy a sandwich or a meal, J's Grand is open Tuesday through Saturday from 11am until 8pm. You can find us on Facebook (J's Grand Bistronomie) or at their website (jsgrandbistronomie.com). The address is 2 E Main St, Dryden, NY and the phone is (607) 708-4303.

and necessity as well as delivered with love for family and life." While he doesn't use the term organic, he does use as much low-processed and all-natural foods as possible. With a family
