CNY LIVING HISTORY CENTER

N June 12, 2012 THE CNY Living History Center officially opened to the public. Our new exhibits for this year are without a doubt, some of the best yet. Staff, members, volunteers, and many more came together to pull off some of the biggest feats this museum has seen so far.

The Homeville Museum, dedicated to preserving military, railroad, as well as local history, is preparing to unveil one of its most intricate exhibits yet. 2017 marks the centennial year the U.S. entered World War I, and we built a true to life, walk through, World War I trench! The trench spans about 16 feet long with both walls measuring about 7 feet high and it is complete with everything from sound effects, lighting effects, fake mud, fake rats, and even a mural of "No Man's Land." All of this is to give the visitors a truly immersive experience in order to fully grasp what it meant to "be down in the trenches."

The Brockway Truck Museum is dedicated to preserving the trucks and the rich history behind the company that got its start in Homer in 1875 and were manufactured in Cortland until 1977. This year we have set a record with the most number of trucks to ever fit in our display area. With a total of 12 Brockways on the floor, this year's display offers one of the most intriguing collections of Brockways the Center has

The Tractors of Yesteryear, or TOYS, is a collection antique tractors and farm equipment devoted to preserving the agricultural roots of Cortland that are still strong today. This year's display will feature a legendary "Color War" between two of the most popular tractor brands, John Deere versus International. With a sea of red and green tractors on display, visitors can see what drove the arguments behind this storied

All three of these components that make up the entire CNY Living History Center have come together to create some of the biggest, best, and most compelling exhibits to date! Come and experience them for yourself! You can also visit us online on Facebook, Instagram, and at www.cnylivinghistory.org!

MIKE'S FISH TANK POND FISH

UTUMN IS COMING AND SOME people will be bring their pond

Try to move them on a day that the water temperature in your outside pond and inside pond are within a few degrees of each other. This will avoid putting the fish under unnecessary stress. Be sure to cover the indoor tank with a net. Fish, especially Koi, will sometimes jump after a move.

If you have gravel in your pond, bring some of that in too. The beneficial bacteria lives in that gravel and this will help your fish's transition from out to in. But don't rinse the gravel because this can kill the good bacteria.

If bringing pond fish inside, the bigger the tank the better as goldfish and koi produce a lot of waste.

If you decide to leave your pond fish outside, just be sure the pond deep enough so that it will not freeze through.

As long as you have open water the fish are usually ok. They make pond heaters/deicers that help keep an area of your pond from freezing. Also having a pump blowing lots of bubbles can help your pond from freezing. Lots of aeration is good.

Cold snaps that drop temperatures below freezing for extended periods can reduce the ability of deicers and aerators to keep holes in the ice for gas exchange. The depth of the outdoor pond and/or if it is an above ground pond will also impact how your pond freezes. Ponds under two and half feet deep are more at risk.

Koi are (cold-blooded) and have adapted to handle cold temperatures. Their metabolism and overall activity is dependent on the ambient water temperature. As the temperature drops, so does their appetite and movement as they settle into what is essentially a state of hibernation.

If it looks like it's going to be a cold winter and you are not sure if your pond will freeze through, then a better option might be to bring your pond fish inside especially if you have expensive koi or fish you've had a long time.

THE CORTLAND AREA TRIBUNE CELEBRATES ITS 15TH ANNIVERSARY!

JUDY KILMER Founder/Editor

re you curious about who started The CAT? The Cortland Area Tribune is published by me, Judy Kilmer. I live in Dryden with my husband John. John and I have 3 grown children and a 4 year old granddaughter.

I have been in the advertising industry for 40+ years. My first job was working at the Conklin Pennysaver in Binghamton in 1973 while I was studying Commercial Art at BOCES and attending high school where I learned the fundamentals of creating and selling newspaper ads and writing articles. After high school graduation, I worked at an advertising agency for 10+ years then took some time off to raise my family. In 1989 we moved to Dryden. I began working in the advertising field once again for a local newspaper when my children started school full

In 2002 I decided to publish my own newspaper. After spending several months interviewing and listening to local business owners about a need for an old fashioned community paper, I wanted to create a paper that featured articles about businesses that folks drive by everyday and inform my readers about their services and/ or products! Plus offer free community events listings for non profit organizations such as chicken BBQ's, etc. and choose to do each issue with a "theme" to keep the paper interesting for curious consumers.

The Cortland Area Tribune was launched in September 2002, providing local merchants with an affordable, attractive bi-weekly paper and still boosts of almost all of its original advertisers today! The mystery photo contest of old photos around the area was added in 2003 and today the contest draws hundreds of guesses each edition!

Doing what I love for a living and making friends over the last 15 years with my advertisers is a great gift! I really enjoy talking with people and those of you that see me every other week probably know that!

Celebrating 15 YEARS OF THE CAT!

Thank you to my devoted advertisers and thank you "my readers" for reading The Cortland Area Tribune in print and online!

And thank you to all the people that work with me to help put the paper together, gather ads and articles, deliver the paper and help me achieve the success of publishing The Cortland Area Tribune for 15

DUSTIN HORTON Designer/Developer

Hello-I'm Dustin. I live in Tulsa, Oklahoma with my wife Alyssa and 3 dogs.

I build the newspaper, both in print & online. I started out delivering for Judy while attending Dryden High School, took over the design duties 11 years ago, and launched the website in 2010.

By day I'm a Software Engineer for a education start-up in San Francisco, and by night I do other web consulting and work with Judy on the newspaper.

It's incredibly rewarding watching the businesses in the community grow, and the CAT is no exception—Judy is an amazing boss and her success is hard-earned and well-deserved. Looking forward to the next

END A CNY BRIDAL SHOW?

GIRLS GROW UP DREAMING about their wedding day. LSo when that magical moment happens and prince charming slips a ring on your finger you immediately beam with excitement. It has finally happened...you are getting married. This should be a piece of cake, right? Then reality sets in, and the stress of planning can get in the way of the excitement. Bridal shows are a great option for any bride-tobe. Whether you know exactly what you're looking for, or need help generating ideas, this is one stop you do not want to miss!

Go ahead; be picky about your wedding plans you deserve the wedding you have always dreamed of. Whether you are looking to solidify major details such as selecting your ceremony or reception sites, or all those finer details such as decorations and invitations, CNY bridal shows offer you a one stop shopping experience. CNY Bridal shows are held four times a year, in November, January, February and March, and offers the area's largest and finest selection of wedding service providers. Especially now with gas prices, why not spend an afternoon collecting all your wedding information instead of hours, days, or even weeks driving to every bridal shop, flower store, and photography studio in the Central New York area. CNY Bridal shows are designed to bring all of the magic of wedding planning under one roof. You can expect to see all sorts of bridal companies including: photographers, DJ's, reception facilities, caterers, cake makers, dress shops, tuxedos rentals, videographers, limos, hair dressers, makeup artists, jewelry companies, florists, musicians, party suppliers, travel agents, and much more.

Make the most of your visit to a CNY bridal show by using the opportunity to really interview possible candidates you still need to book. Do your research before the show and bring a list of questions to ask. It's great to bring your groom/partner and anyone else that will be involved in the decision making process. You will be able to compare prices and products, personalities of the consultants, samples of their work, and even make reservations that day. With any luck, you can get some of your wedding plans out of the way. But be aware that most service providers require a deposit upon reservation. So take your time and talk to everyone, and make sure that you have your checkbook ready in case you find the perfect fit! Don't be afraid to ask for referrals or a list of previous customers from the wedding vendors you are considering. Make sure to view several samples of their work, and only if you feel completely comfortable should you book their

How better to help get your wedding details underway than by receiving free gifts. CNY Bridal shows offer brides the opportunity to win valuable door prizes worth sometimes hundreds of dollars. Finally, all CNY bridal shows host a fashion show towards the end of the afternoon. These are fun for everyone. It is a great chance to see different styles of dresses and tuxedos in action. So kick back and enjoy the show! And remember, organizing your wedding can be a huge job, but with the assistance of services such as CNY bridal shows, it cuts down on some of the work. So arm yourself with your most trusty girlfriends and head to the next bridal show. Make sure you go with an open mind and most importantly, have fun!

Show dates and locations are found @ CNYbridal.com. Tickets are free for registered brides-to-be and her guests and are reserved on a first come basis. All shows are limited on the number of attendees allowed. Go to CNYbridal.com for more
