DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME ENDS

TIME WILL FALL BACK TO standard time again on Sunday, November 5 at 2am, when daylight saving time ends.

History of Daylight Time in the U.S.

Although standard time in time zones was instituted in the U.S. and Canada by the railroads in 1883, it was not established in U.S. law until the Act of March 19, 1918, sometimes called the Standard Time Act. The act also established daylight saving time, a contentious idea then. Daylight saving time was repealed in 1919, but standard time in time zones remained in law. Daylight time became a local matter. It was re-established nationally early in World War II, and was continuously observed from 9 February 1942 to 30 September 1945. After the war its use varied among states and localities. The Uniform Time Act of 1966 provided standardization in the dates of beginning and end of daylight time in the U.S. but allowed for local exemptions from its observance. The act provided that daylight time begin on the last Sunday in April and end on the last Sunday in October, with the changeover to occur at 2 a.m. local time.

During the "energy crisis" years, Congress enacted earlier starting dates for daylight time. In 1974, daylight time began on 6 January and in 1975 it began on 23 February. After those two years the starting date reverted back to the last Sunday in April. In 1986, a law was passed that shifted the starting date of daylight time to the first Sunday in April, beginning in 1987. The ending date of daylight time was not subject to such changes, and remained the last Sunday in October. The Energy Policy Act of 2005 changed both the starting and ending dates. Beginning in 2007, daylight time started on the second Sunday in March and ends on the first Sunday in November.

CALLING ALL CRAFTERS! On NOVEMBER 4th the Central New York Living History Center will be holding its first annual craft show! The inspiration for our craft show came to us when we began to update the gift shop in the museum. When you walk into our gift shop you will see a wall of new items everything from jewelry, to afghans, to handmade soaps, and even organic honey! As we began to bring in more and more of these hand-made items, we started to see more positive comments about our unique selection of items. This started us down the road of hosting our very own craft show, and we would like you to be a part of it! Vendor tables are still available and can be reserved for only $25! You don't have to be a vendor to participate or enjoy this event either! Just come in to browse the crafts and maybe buy a few while you're at it, or you can take a break from the crafts and walk through our three museums. Each museum caters to a different type of history and takes the visitor on a journey through these three different eras of history. The Homeville Museum is dedicated to preserving military, local, and national history. The Brockway Museum is dedicated to preserving the trucks themselves and the history of the Brockway factory. The Tractors of Yesteryear Museum preserves the area of Cortland's rich agricultural history. Whether you come to see some crafts or walk through history, there is something here for everyone! And don't forget to mark your calendars for November 4th!

in their title – PA’s undergo intensive medical training and provide many of the same services as a doctor. In areas like upstate New York where access to specialty care can be limited, PA’s provide an extension of their supervising physician’s care. Access to dermatologic care has been a long time issue in the area with average wait times of six months. Dr. Josephine McAllister recognized the need for quality access and has been slowly adding PA’s to her growing team. “The PA’s joining my team are carefully chosen for their proven excellence and I establish a close mentor relationship with each of them. My aim is to train each of them to practice according to the same protocols I learned in Dermatology residency at Harvard, so no matter whom you see, everyone on the team can provide the same high caliber of care for which we are known,” said Dr. McAllister. Like physicians, the exact duties of a PA depend on the type of medical setting in which they work and the level of experience they have in a specialty. At Dermatology Associates of Ithaca, all of the PA’s have at least five years of experience. Dr. McAllister shared, “Mark Wernham PA, has 10 years of dermatology experience and Thomas Brown PA has over 20 years of experience. The practice offers a team-based approach which benefits our patients. Our team has a collective 40+ years of dermatology experience!”

Dr. Josephine C. McAllister is a board-certified, Harvard trained dermatologist who has selectively chosen and mentored her team of five Physician Assistants with a mission to make dermatologic care more accessible to patients. They are excited to welcome patients to their new office, conveniently located in Cortland at 3773 Luker Road.

I RECENTLY SAW A POST on Facebook, about “there’s nothing to do here” meaning nothing to do in Cortland, and I assume all of Cortland County. Well, guess what?!

Cheerful & Creative always offers a fun night out with friends, family, and others who are looking to add excitement to their life! At Cheerful & Creative they offer a variety of mediums to create art: reclaimed wood signs & windows, globes, canvas, wine glasses, marble cloth design, the list goes on. Plus, we are always adding more ORIGINAL & CREATIVE SELECTIONS so no one is ever bored with the same old thing.

The studio offers open classes, kids classes, home schooling classes, and of course PRIVATE PARTIES to celebrate that special someone, organization, or holiday event. All of their crafts and paintings are carefully selected for its uniqueness, while being available for all ages and skill levels.

Owner and artist, Ashley along with the fabulously talented local artist Jennah Lena, both look to create items you WANT in your home, or give away as a gift (with love & pride). They strive for you and your guests to have a wonderful time out socializing with friends or strangers, while just bringing your full creative self out for the night!

And, of course for all classes, parties, and fundraisers—guests are welcomed to bring whatever snacks and drinks they would like, as Cheerful & Creative’s goal is for everyone to have an entertaining experience throughout the creative process.

If you prefer to have the studio come to you, let them know! They love to travel for the sake of ART!

Luckily, Cheerful & Creative is conveniently located in the City of Cortland, 33 Main Street behind Long Island Bagel (entrance on Central Ave) so you can easily get a bite to eat then walk over and create. Or, order in and have your drinks and food delivered to the studio!

DRYDEN HOTEL THE LEGEND CONTINUES

Proud of the past...primed for the future!

THE DRYDEN HOTEL HAS A past unparalleled by most other businesses in the area. First rented out by Tom Lewis on Main Street in 1844, the Dryden Hotel was soon enlarged and rebuilt as the Grove Hotel. After being destroyed by fire in 1866, James Cole rebuilt the historic building in 1871. In the early 1900s, the Dryden Hotel was fit with steam heating and indoor plumbing, and stood until another fire swept through it in December of 1995. After 7 months of rebuilding, the Dryden Hotel was reopened in July of 1996, complete with 11 studio apartments, a barbershop and a hotel lounge. The hotel is still serving the community over 150 years later, and manager Cassie Byrnes is proud of all the Dryden Hotel still has to offer.

The Dryden Hotel is open and serving fresh homemade breakfast, lunch, dinner, and pizza 7 days a week, with daily breakfast, lunch and dinner specials. Make the Hotel your place to go to watch all of your favorite sports and games. With their 8 LED TV's (2 with 80" screens), their 12 beers on tap, and their friendly, relaxing atmosphere, you won't want to be anywhere else!!

The Holidays will soon be upon us and reservations for holiday parties at the Dryden Hotel are filling quickly. Call (607) 844-8293 and talk to Cassie Byrnes about booking a party in a beautiful setting at the Hotel. Perfect for banquets, gatherings, parties big or small and all other occasions.

The Dryden Hotel also has several studio and 1 bedroom apartments for rent on a regular basis. These newly renovated apartments are rented on a month-to-month basis, are close to TC3, Cortland and Ithaca, and provide an affordable option for a wonderful place to live. Call today for more information.

LOCKED AND LOADED

ROB HARVEY, BIG GAME HUNTER

PAST PEDDLERS ANTIQUES

PAST PEDDLERS ANTIQUES WOULD LIKE to say a very special Thank You to all our valued customers who visited our Fall Open House and Yard Sale. It was great to see some old friends as well as make some new friends we hope to see many times in the future!!

Past Peddlers Antiques, located at 1319 Church Street in Willet, NY is welcoming yet another Fall season. This time of year experiences many changes. Our biggest change, and the one we are most excited about, is the expansion of our shop. Past Peddlers will soon be celebrating the much anticipated Grand Opening of our second floor, now providing four rooms, and something to please any shopper!! We are expanding our antique furniture selection to include more primitive benches, dressers, jelly cupboards, armoires, tables and chairs. We have a nice selection of crocks from 1 gallon up to 30 gallon, depression glass, Pyrex, Fire King, as well as many vintage kitchen utensils, advertising boxes and hard to find collectibles.

We have a special room for the guy in your life (and some girls too!!) that offers antique tool boxes, trunks, tools, hunting, fishing, trapping and more.

You don't have to love antiques to find something special. We continue to offer primitive home decor, including wrought iron, pip berry garland and candle rings, candles, tarts, room sprays and diffusers from the Black Crow Candle Co., timbered candles, ornaments, wool rugs, table pads and stair treads, plus many other items, from Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

We continue to stock a variety of quilted candle mats, mug rugs, table toppers, mantel scarves and quilts, stenciled signs, repurposed furniture and handmade crafts, all created by Tonimarie Warner, the shops owner.

For the upcoming Christmas season we will be offering pre-made gift baskets, a custom gift registry, lay-a-way and gift certificates. Our gift basket selection will include a little something for a co-worker, teacher or best friend!

Some dates to add to your calendar - Look for our Grand Opening announcement in November; Sunday November 26th, 2017 look for us at Three Bear Inn in Marathon, NY for their Annual Holiday Mall; December 2nd and 3rd at Past Peddlers Antiques for our Annual Christmas Open House.

We are open Thursday thru Sunday 10-5, other times by chance or appointment. You can call/text ahead, 607-345-8810, find us at Past Peddlers Antiques Willet on Facebook or just stop by the "Big Red Barn behind the Willet Ballfield".

We accept cash, check and credit cards. Dealers are always welcome!

CORTLAND REPERTORY THEATRE WILL BE hosting a series of three Trivia Nights, to be held on the third Thursday of October and November this fall. These fun and family-friendly events are fund raisers for CRT’s Youth Programs, and will have multiple categories of questions each night, including pop culture, movies, sports, history and more. The events start at 7:00 PM at CRT Downtown, 24 Port Watson Street in downtown Cortland and will offer free snacks with a beer/wine cash bar. Trivia fans are asked to come in teams comprised of up to 4 people; there is an admission charge of $5.00 per person. Six rounds will be played, and the evening will wrap up by 9:00 PM.
