AJ'S FAMILY DINER CHANGES HANDS

By Shannon R. Myers

 \mathbf{I}^{N} April of this year, Cortland, NY, blinked, and AJ's Family Diner changed hands. The transition was smooth and the pause, brief. This could be attributed to the new owners, Katie and Russell Lockwood. Katie's experience in food service dates back to her childhood, when her mother owned a restaurant in McGraw, and she well known in the Cortland through her years of service at the Country Diner, Frank & Mary's Diner, and AJ's Family Diner prior to the acquisition of AJ's. Her knowledge and experience contributed to the business's continued operation with barely a blip on the radar.

"In February, the former owner of AJ's asked my husband if he wanted to buy the diner," she said. "Then, on a Monday in April, we took possession of the business, closed on Thursday of that week, and opened at nine o'clock a.m. the following Monday." In one week's time, the transaction had been completed and the Lockwoods updated the diner: they replaced the flooring in the kitchen, added new equipment to the kitchen, and repainted and updated the décor in the dining room. They will be replacing the dining room flooring.

When asked why she continued to serve in the restaurant business, without hesitation Katie responded, "The customers." She enjoys the social aspect of serving the community and providing a friendly, family atmosphere in which people can gather. But AJ's Family Diner is not just a family-friendly eatery; it is also family operated. Katie gives a lot of credit to Russell and her other family members that have pitched in and helped, including her mother, who works there, her children, who come in and assist when needed, and her two sisters-in-law, who work there, as well.

If you haven't stopped in to eat at AJ's Family Diner, what are you waiting for? Virtually all the menu items are home made. Their sandwiches are fresh and tasty, and they serve up a perfectly prepared plate of eggs, bacon and home fries. Let's not forget the popular sausage gravy, served on biscuits and home fries or hash browns. The burgers are also much in demand, as are the desserts.

AJ's Family Diner is located at 202 Port Watson Street. You can partake of their offerings Sunday through Thursday from 6 am to 2 pm and Friday and Saturday from 6 am to 8 pm. Questions? To speak with Katie or her staff, dial (607) 756-5830, or look up AJ's Family Diner on Facebook. Bring your family, stop in and have a meal. You'll be glad you did!

CREATURE FEATURE THE BALTIMORE ORIOLE

ACH SPRING, THE BALTIMORE ORIOLE returns to us from its wintering grounds in Central America to breed and raise young. The mature male has brilliant-orange, black and white plumage; the female is more subdued, but still lovely. It prefers smaller stands of trees over deep forests and can often be found foraging up high in the tree canopy. While the Baltimore oriole eats a lot of harmful pests — such as tent caterpillars, flies and grasshoppers - it can ruin orchard crops while gobbling up favorite fruits, like raspberries and cherries. It likes nectar, too, so don't be surprised to find one sneaking a sip at your hummingbird feeder. The female oriole constructs a hanging sock-like nest by randomly "weaving" together slender plant fibers, horse hair, bits of string, frayed strips of plastic tarps and other useful man-made materials. The male defends the pair's territory. Try attracting Baltimore orioles to your yard each spring by offering orange halves impaled on tree branches or little bowls of grape jelly. With any luck, you'll be rewarded with opportunities to marvel at the beauty of this bird, as well as experience its buoyant songs and loud, chattering call.

DRYDEN AGWAY CELEBRATING 35 YEARS AS AN INDEPENDENT BUSINESS

By Kelly Ritter

RYDEN AGWAY BECAME AN INDEPENDENT business in 1984. It has been locally owned and operated since then. Being surrounded by "big Box" stores and the allure of online shopping, we are quite proud to be going strong all these years! That's why we are hosting an event Saturday May 18th, to celebrate this wonderful accomplishment! The fun starts at 9am with a craft fair. We will have vendors with jewelry, wood working, soap and herbal remedies. Olea Estates will be here with olive oil, vinegars and herbs. We will have a Mary Kay rep and a Thirty One rep here as well! The craft fair runs until 1pm. From 11-1, Lite 97.3 will be here with a live broadcast! Americana Winery and Bacchus Brewery will be here with samples at that time as well! At 11:30 Alexanders Food Truck will arrive with his AMAZING MENU! If you have never tried his food, this is your chance to treat your taste buds! All day we will have great sales like 35% off all Trees, 35% off all bird feeders and 35% off all pet toys! We will also have a drawing for 35 different giveaways!

For the last five years, Dryden Agway has hosted the Dryden Farmers Market. This market is FREE for vendors and the community has really enjoyed it. FABIUS COUNTRY STOI

Pabius Country Store is located on the corner of Route 80 and Ridge Road, in the village of Fabius, and shares its location with Fabius Bottle & Can at 7861 Main Street.

Co-owners, Bruce Chimene of Tully and Rhonda Wheeler of Cazenovia, purchased Anna's Country Store when it closed in December 2016, but the property did not suit our needs, so we bought the Barber Shop nearby, immediately opened the Bottle Return on one half of the building, and began renovating the other half for the store in 2017. We are pleased that the work is just about done and we will have a soft

The addition of the deck and ice cream windows will compliment the store nicely, which will have groceries, deli, coffee and much more as the work advances. There will be beer available when the license is acquired and lottery after the required 90-day waiting period and training is complete.

As the store progresses and customer needs are expressed, we will offer coffee and breakfast sandwiches, pizza, lunch specials, deli meats and salads, subs and sandwiches, cigarettes, and as many local products as we can squeeze in. We will also offer ice cream cakes, sandwiches, and sundaes, along with hard ice cream. We are completely ADA compliant with a convenient ramp and bathroom facilities. Outdoor seating is available on the deck.

We invite everyone to come and see how we are doing and relax on the deck with an ice cream cone. We look forward to serving the community and offering the classic country store environment and invite local vendors to stop in to offer their products. If you need something that we don't have, please let us know, as we are a work in progress.

ONCO FERMENTATIONS TULLY'S OWN MICROBREWERY AND TASTING ROOM

Yes, there is a brewery in Tully!

PEN SINCE MARCH 15, ONCO Fermentations is a farm brewery brewing classic, experimental, and wild/mixed fermentations. Located behind Applied Concepts on Route 281 just outside the Village of Tully, owners Brian and Erin Bullard have created a space they are calling "cozy warehouse industrial", complete with glass garage doors that open to let the air in while visitors sample a rotating selection of house made beers.

Using ingredients from the seasons, from regional farms, Founder and Head Brewer Brian Bullard's beers will be ever evolving. He looks forward to pouring a pint for you and sharing the stories about the ingredients, farmers, and process behind each fermentation.

Brian's initial beers have included King's Corner (a New York cream ale) and its sister, Coconut King (think coconut cream pie in a glass); Dark Smoothie (an oatmeal stout); Flaming Oscar (a specialty New York IPA with ginger and orange peel); and soft, fruity New England style IPAs. He has showcased a hopped Saison and is getting ready to launch the Songs of the Saison series (first up is the base honey Saison, split into a Saison with honey with hibiscus).

Brian's passion is creating beers that are fermented or aged in wine and spirit barrels - look for wild ales aged on fruits such as cherries, blueberries, raspberries, and pluots to be highlighted in the future. (Ask Brian to explain to you what a wild ale is, and what his process is, and watch his face light

As a farm brewery ONCO also serves other New York craft beer, wine, and cider hand selected by Brian and Erin from their favorite Friends in Fermentation. The owners are looking to add New York spirits and possibly mead in the future.

Both Brian and Erin strive to greet every customer with a smile and are eager to tell you about their beers. The owners are very approachable and want you to try before you buy, especially if you are not familiar with a style of beer or want to go out of your comfort zone. They encourage that and love talking about beer.

ONCO and guest beers are available in 5 oz tasters (individually or by the flight) as well as 10 oz and 16 oz pours (depending on the beer). The brewery is not filling growlers but instead offers 16 oz cans to go of all ONCO beers that can be bought in any quantity, mix and match, subject to availability.

The tasting room is family friendly. At this point while Brian and Erin love doggies they will only be permitted in the outside seating areas. As spring moves to summer outdoor seating and game areas will be expanded, and a deck is planned off two of the three glass garage doors that you will find open on warm ONCO's online event calendar is filling up fast with food trucks stopping by and live music. Visitors are always welcome to bring their own picnic or to order from local restaurants (there are menus in the tap room). When you visit, be sure to pay attention to the display screens in the brewery to find out what events are coming up and what beers are on deck. Check out the brewery's events calendar at www.oncoferment.com and follow ONCO Fermentations on social media.

TARSON POOLS & SPAS IS READY FOR 2019 SEASON

By Shannon Myers

ARM WEATHER IS FAST APPROACHING, and it is time to get your pool in order. Tarson Pools & Spas Cortland branch, located at 953 McLean Road, has received an exterior upgrade, an internal expansion, and is ready to help you with your 2019 pool needs!

During the 75 years since Tarson Pools & Spas opened in 1943 at its original location on Burnett Avenue, it has expanded into seven locations and is the oldest and largest pool and patio business in Central New York. Tarson Pools & Spas offers a diverse array of top of the line products, including quality above-ground pools and custom in-ground pools, state of the art spas, patio furniture, game tables, and pool accessories. This, along with the fact that Tarson Pools and Spas offers proper insurance coverage to consumers, helps set this business apart from its competitors.

"We often get calls from consumers with price comparisons from other pool retail and servicers who offer lower pricing," said Robert Tarson Jr., owner. "What consumers don't know is that the recommended contractors are not always fully insured, which is a high risk to the homeowner. The most important types of insurance that are necessary to protect the homeowner are worker's compensation and general liability insurance. We carry these types of insurance, making our pricing a little higher, but adding immeasurable value for the consumer. This insurance protects the consumer in the case of worker injury or issues that arise from improper work."

Tarson Pools & Spas also has trained and certified staff for service. "We have CPO certified staff," Bob said. "CPO is a Certified Pool Operator class that our employees attend. They receive certification to acknowledge the build of the pool and both commercial and residential service work."

May 15-28, 2019

Get ready for lots of summer fun! Visit Tarson Pools & Spas at 953 McLean Road, for all of your pool care and maintenance needs. The Cortland branch is open Monday-Friday from 9 am to 5 pm and on Saturdays from 9 am to 3 pm. Have questions? Give Tarson Pools & Spas a call at (607) 758-3550. For information about its different locations or to check out all Tarson Pools & Spas has to offer, visit www.tarsonpools.

MIKE'S FISH TANK PLECO

DLECOS ARE ALGAE-EATERS, BUT YOUR home aquarium won't

Since algae is the favorite food, I tell people to wait until you have algae, then add a pleco to your tank.

Life Expectancy: Plecos who live in captivity tend to have slightly briefer lifespans than those out in the wild.

Pet plecos often survive from 10 to 15 years, Those that live on their own in natural settings, however, often exceed 15 years in age. Plecos can grow big. I have seen them up to 2 feet long and sometimes even larger the that.

There are a lot of different plecos, all with a variety of prices. The black and white pleco can sell for as much as $100.

Plecos prefer temperatures between about 75 and 82°F. With that being said, there are some pleco species that are hardier than others, and may be able to withstand some cooler waters.

I do have people ask me if a pleco eats the waste of other fish.thev do not. To get rid of excess food and waste, you will need to do a water change using a siphon. Plecos are quite a hardy fish as long as they have algae to eat. Do they overeat?

I have had people say they put a pleco in a very algaed tank and in 2 days the tank is clean and the pleco dies.

> So it could be that plecos can eat themselves to death. I think it's rare but possible.

Pets A Plenty is located in the Blockbuster Video Plaza. Rte 281 Cortland, 753-9213. Open 7 days a week. We now have a website. WWW.PETSAPLENTY.BIZ. check it out. I post care sheets, coupons, new animal arrivals, contests and more. Any questions, email me at friskyy@hotmail.com provide enough algae to keep your pleco full. You'll need to feed plecos algae wafers too. Plecos will sometimes eat vegetables including zucchini, spinach and kale.
