DRYDEN WINE & SPIRITS CELEBRATES 24 YEARS

ALLE VASSE WAS BORN AND raised in Ithaca, NY, leaving the area in 1974 for adventures in California. Valle was a top semi conductor sales person for a number of years, however she wanted to come back to the area to be closer to family, thus a trip back to the area in 1991. A few years after her return from California, the local wine and liquor store in Dryden became available and well, why not...Valle Vasse, became the Owner of Dryden Wine and Spirits and is celebrating 24 years of service to the Dryden area.

Located at 23 West Main Street in Dryden, the building itself has an interesting history as it was a funeral home prior to becoming a Wine and Spirits store after prohibition! This gives a new meaning to our staff being your Spirit Guides!

When you walk into Dryden Wine and Spirits, you will see sparkling bottles and a large selection of wine and spirits from around the World and well as an extensive amount from New York State. HOLIDAY SHOPPING: BIG BOX VS. SMALL BUSINESS

By Shana Karn, Co-Owner, The Second Knob Gifts & Antiques

Tr's that time of year again. People are already talking... Target is opening on Thanksgiving...Yada Yada Yada. It is no surprise that, as retailers, we hear customers referring to "Black Friday" frequently around this time of year but maybe you will be surprised to hear that the overrated Black Friday is truly a thorn in a small business owner's side. After all, how do locally owned, small businesses (often struggling financially) manage to draw crowds to their little shops the day after Thanksgiving— when huge corporations like Walmart and Target have millions to spend on nationwide campaigns and spend only pennies to the dollar that small business owners do on their inventory??

In 2010, AMEX created the "Small Business Saturday" campaign in an effort to bring attention to small businesses and to encourage "shopping small." Thankfully, the efforts by credit card giant, American Express, did help and the day/event has gained momentum over the years and brought more exposure to small businesses.

Since opening The Second Knob Gifts & Antiques in 2011, we've struggled with ways to encourage shoppers to shop small businesses on Black Friday which has historically been a record LOW sales day for us and many other small businesses— while big box stores report record-breaking sales. In past years, we've offered free coffee and donuts; we've offered crazy sales—selling below our purchase price on some items!

It doesn't seem to matter. Black Friday has been a BUST for us. So, why keep trying?? Because we love our store and our customers; we love the idea that maybe just one person will give up big box Black Friday and, instead, support local, small business.

Why is this so important?

I've said it over and over again. I've written articles and articles addressing BF and stressing the importance of avoiding it. But I will say it again. And again. And again.

When you shop local, small business, you are helping your community and your friends who live in and support the community (Kelly at Dryden Agway, Vicki at Specialty Trophy, and me and my Dad, Andy, at The Second Knob)! When our businesses grow, so can our contributions to the community! Shopping local, small business means less infrastructure, less maintenance and more money to beautify a community. Shopping local, small business (rather than in larger chain stores/ online) also means that your sales tax dollars are spent/reinvested right here in our community—where they belong! Supporting small business means that you are nurturing your community; you are supporting local job creation (and retention); you are investing in entrepreneurship and could actually be helping a small town become a "destination" for people in neighboring areas.

Holiday mini photo sessions with Shots by Shana Photography run November 18-24, with evening hours available! These sessions are $75 plus tax for 4 edited digital images (holiday setting) in the studio. Learn more by visiting Shots by Shana Photography on Facebook! Call Shana to schedule: (607)345-9697.

Between now and November 30, 2019, "check-in" or "post & shout out" on Instagram or Facebook while at The Second Knob and you will earn an additional 10% off ANY purchase made on 11/29 (Black Friday). Need help "checking in?" Just ask and we will help!

PAST PEDDLERS ANTIQUES

WITH THANKSGIVING QUICKLY APPROACHING, WE all feel it's the time of year to reflect on the past and count our blessings. At Past Peddlers Antiques, our customers are definitely our greatest blessing!

This year has not been easy for a lot of my fellow small business owners. The rise in internet businesses and our ability to purchase anything with a simple click of a button has proven to be devastating.

In 2018, I discovered a new passion, hand stitched wool! Oh my, the colors and textures and wide array of project ideas I found was endless. My only disappointment being that I could only find a very limited supply of wool fabric without going on the internet to purchase it. This gave me an idea...

It has taken over a year to accomplish but Past Peddlers Antiques is now offering an outlet to my local fellow wool lovers. Over the past year I have collected, processed and prepared hundreds of various used wool garments. In repurposing used wool clothing I have been able to amass a collection of wool fabric for use in applique, rug making and hooking at an affordable price. The benefit I find in this is that my customers can actually come in to the shop to select the wool perfect for their project without having to wait for it to

I have created an area in the shop that allows my customers to bring in their pattern or project piece, sit and casually select all the perfect colors, prints and textures they may need. I also purchased equipment that has allowed me to offer precut shapes from simple circles for stacked pennies to holiday shapes, including snowflakes, trees, pumpkins, christmas tags and ornaments, and much more. At this time we are also stocking a nice collection of Valdani threads to complete your project.

If you're looking for a new project idea, this area also offers many books and templates for you to browse and use to help create a beautiful hand-crafted piece to add to your own home

And yes, we do still have antiques!!! Currently, we are overstocked with beautiful oak dressers, jelly cupboards, hoosiers, tables and chairs, crocks of all sizes, stoneware bowls, advertising boxes and more.

Early in 2019 I sustained an injury to my arm that required surgery. Going through this process I found I was unable to do many things but the injury did not prevent me from collecting lots of new and beautiful items.

Currently, we are transforming the shop for a festive shopping experience. Our Christmas Open House/Sip and Shop is scheduled for November 24th from 9-5. If you're planning to visit the Willet Senior Center's Holiday Extravaganza that day, don't forget to stop in, enjoy a glass of wine and check some special people off your gift list! Also, visit us at Three Bear Inn in Marathon on Sunday December 1st from 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Past Peddlers Antiques, located at 1319 Church Street, Willet, New York is located just off Routes 221 and 26/41. Easily find us on Google maps!! We are the Big Red Barn behind the Willet Ball Park. Our hours are generally Thursday thru Sunday 10-5 but for the remainder of the year, we will be offering extended hours. Call ahead at 607-345-8810 or follow us on Facebook at Past Peddlers Antiques Willet for information on extended We have something for everyone and Dealers are always welcome!! We accept cash, local or dealer checks and credit cards. Lay-a-way is offered to hold your purchase for

GRATEFULNESS

To understand gratefulness we can begin by looking at the following Eckhart Tolle quote; What does gratefulness mean? It means you appreciate what is. You value, you give attention to, you honor whatever is here at this moment." Gratefulness is such a beautifully simple mindfulness practice.

While we'll see the most benefits from cultivating gratefulness every day, a committed daily practice can be difficult when life gets busy. For some, the Holidays bring out an abundance of gratitude, for others the Holidays are times of stress and pressure. Simply knowing what gratefulness is, will only get us so far. In order to truly embody this wisdom we have to be in the experience of gratefulness, which takes practice. Try the following practice until the new year, truly feel gratitude in your heart and body.

Sharon Salzberg, an incredibly warm and kind meditation teacher encourages all of us to deepen into gratitude with the following practice.

I offer my gratitude for the safety and well-being I have been given. I offer my gratitude for the blessing of this earth I have been given. I offer my gratitude for the measure of health I have been given. I offer my gratitude for the family and friends I have been given. I offer my gratitude for the community I have been given. I offer my gratitude for the teachings and lessons I have been given. I offer my gratitude for the life I have been given.

Just as we are grateful for our blessings, so we can be grateful for the blessings of others.

MIKE'S FISH TANK HELPFUL TANK FACTS

OME HELPFUL TANK FACTS. GOLDFISH and tropical fish don't always mix. Goldfish like it cold. 60's or less. Tropicals like it warm, near 80 degrees. Algae eaters are tropical fish and don't always do well in the colder water.

Set your tank up and let it run for 24 hours before adding fish. Only float your bag of fish 5 minutes before adding them to your tank. Floating your fish longer than 5 minutes will accomplish nothing. In fact it's dangerous to float longer than that. The water in the bag heats up the longer you float and the oxygen starts to diminish as it heats up, and it becomes dangerous to your fish.

Ick is the most common fish disease. Looks like salt sprinkled on your fish. It's a stress disease, caused by water too hot or too cold. tapping on the glass of your tank, fish being chased or bullied by other fish, floating your bag of fish too long. Any kind of stress can cause ick. If you see it on your fish, treat immediately with an ick remedy. If you catch it in time, you should be able to cure your fish before it can kill your fish.

Some fish are more susceptible to catching ick, bala sharks, clown loaches, iridescent sharks, silver dollars, and rummynose are a few of the fish that catch ick easily.

There are some other fish diseases that are less common but you should watch out for. Things like cloudy eyes, white patches on the body, blood streaks through the fins can all be bacterial problems and need an antibiotic. The ick medicine usually will not work on those types of diseases. The key to saving a sick fish is how fast you can medicate after seeing the problem, so check your fish daily.

Any fish can be a bully. Even community fish can be a problem. I have had people tell me their female guppy was bullying their fish. Check your fish daily, if you see a lot of fish with torn or frayed fins, you may have a bully. The fish that has no frayed fins, That's probably your culprit.

Whenever buying fish on a really hot or really cold day, take them right home and put them into your tank. Extreme temperatures can cause problems with your fish.
