THE WILLIAM GEORGE AGENCY FOR CHILDREN'S SERVICES

SINCE ITS INCEPTION IN 1895, The William George Agency for Children's Services has been at the forefront of residential care.

From its modest beginnings as a summer camp for inner city children, our Agency has grown to become one of the largest, most respected residential treatment facilities in New York State. We currently provide over 200 teenagers from 55 counties with counseling, education, independent living and vocational skills, family reconciliation and supportive community services. Additionally, we are also one of the largest not-for-profit agencies in Tompkins and Cortland counties, providing jobs for nearly 500 full-time employees.

What drives this tremendous growth and impact? At the heart of everything we do is our motto: "Care First"

We are committed to providing a safe and caring residential environment supported by proven therapeutic, clinical, and medical care for at-risk youth. Our innovative, highly regarded programs serve high need, specialized populations who have been historically underserved. We care first about the youth we serve, while helping them develop the attitudes, social skills and self-direction that will enable them to become contributing members of the community, and we respect, empower, and partner with families to support their efforts in successful reunification and family preservation.

In addition to providing outstanding residential care, The William George Agency strives to create an exceptional work environment as well. We provide an excellent wage and benefits package, and we offer extensive support, training, and advancement opportunities. It's challenging work, but if you like building relationships and working with people, if you enjoy making an impact by teaching and helping others, this may be the rewarding career for you.

If you would like to know more about our Agency, or you would be interested in exploring career opportunities with us, we invite you to visit our web page wgaforchildren.org or contact us by phone at (607) 844-6460.

LOCAL GROUP HOLDS YOUTH VIDEO CONTEST ABOUT IMPACT OF SMOKING IN MOVIES

The more young people see smoking on screen, the more likely they are to start smoking

Cortland/Tompkins/Chenango Reality Check, a program of the Cortland County Health Department, invites youth ages 13-18 to participate in a contest aimed at shining a spotlight on the tobacco industry's use of smoking imagery on screen to normalize and glamorize tobacco use. The statewide winning video will be highlighted on the Reality Check and Tobacco-Free NY websites and promoted through social media.

The University of California San Francisco's Smoke-Free Media 'What is Hollywood Hiding from Parents Action Toolkit' explains, "Big Tobacco secretly bought its way on screen for decades. The U.S. entertainment industry still refuses to give parents and audiences advance warning before exposing kids to tobacco imagery that is proven to recruit millions of new young smokers and kill them as adults. Tobacco on screen is the single biggest media risk to children and teens. Hollywood has known of the danger since at least 2003. Yet movie studios and TV producers have never updated their rating systems to even mention smoking or tobacco. They are concealing toxic content. Ratings, warnings, and TV parental controls all need to be reinforced to stop tobacco addiction from trapping another generation. With the streaming revolution now underway, it's easier than ever for kids to watch movies and TV shows packed with toxic tobacco content. And, the more young people see smoking on screen, the more likely they are to start smoking."

"This video competition gives young people across New York the opportunity to become involved in a Reality Check priority initiative.," explains Kristina Donders, Reality Check Youth Ambassador of the Year for 2021. "It is projected that on-screen smoking will kill two million U.S. Children and teens alive today. This is a campaign that saves lives. We are looking forward to seeing what youth have to say about this in their videos."

Teens throughout the region and the state are challenged to create a 60-second video exposing the tobacco industry's manipulative tactics within the entertainment industry. Tobacco imagery is used to promote and glamorize smoking and e-cigarette use. Judging will be based on quality, creativity and effectiveness, and accuracy of messages. Each video must have the following key facts and a minimum of one key statement from the following:

Key Facts:

Youth who are exposed to images of smoking in movies are more likely to smoke. (US Surgeon General)

It is projected that on-screen smoking will kill two million U.S. children and teens alive today. (US Center for Disease Control)

R-rating future movies with smoking would reduce the youth smoking rate in the United States by 18%. (US Center for Disease Control)

Key Statements:

One little letter could save a million lives. Rate smoking R.

Protect youth from on-screen exposure to tobacco.

Smoking in movies kills in real life.

Video submissions are due February 9, 2022. One video will be recognized as the statewide winner. This video will live on www.realitycheckofny.com and highlight the issue through the lens of New York State youth. Four regional winning videos will also be awarded and recognized at the regional level. All winners will be announced on March 9, 2022 as part of the New York Tobacco Control Program's annual Statewide Legislative Education Day. All awards will be recognized at regional press events (dates and locations to be determined) and promoted through local media outlets. All youth participating in the contest will receive a Reality Check Swag Bag.

For complete contest rules and to submit entries, visit www.realitycheckofny.com. For questions specific to the contest, please email Nikki at NKoekebacker@cortland-co.org.

Reality Check is a youth-led movement in New York State that empowers youth to become leaders in their communities in exposing what they see as the manipulative and deceptive marketing tactics of the tobacco industry. Since 2001 the organization's members produce change in their communities through grassroots mobilization and education. Twenty-six Reality Check programs covering all 62 counties of New York State are funded by the New York State Department of Health Bureau of Tobacco Control and utilize evidence-based public health strategies to reduce the impact of tobacco use and promotion and create healthy places to live, work and play.

CREATURE FEATURE

TINY BUT TOUGH

The black-capped chickadee is a wee winter warrior. It weighs about as much as a handful of paperclips but can survive frigid temperatures thanks to some amazing adaptations. For starters, its plush winter plumage helps trap body heat and keep out the cold. The chickadee is also choosy about where it sleeps, preferring a well-insulated roosting nook.

During a typical winter day, the black-capped chickadee revisits many different places where it hid seeds previously, tucked one by one under tree bark or in tree crotches. It finds its hidden stashes thanks to a remarkable capacity for memory that actually increases during the winter months.

In addition to seeds, the chickadee also eats berries, insects and their eggs and larvae, and occasionally bits of carrion. It gorges itself, gaining an additional 10 percent or more of its body weight each day before going to roost. During a long, cold winter night, the chickadee endures hypothermia and a reduced metabolic rate. It shivers to generate heat, and by the next morning, the excess fat it consumed the day before is burned off.

Despite common belief, feeding chickadees doesn't make them dependent on us. They relish black-oil sunflower seeds, suet and peanut butter, and these high-fat offerings can give them a much-needed boost during severe cold.

Cortland Repertory Theatre, Cortland NY, is announcing Youth Auditions for Central New York actors between the ages of 8 – 13 for the summer production of Disney and Cameron Mackintosh's "Mary Poppins". This musical is based on the stories of P. L. Travers and the Walt Disney film, with a book by Julian Fellowes, original music and lyrics by Richard M. Sherman and Robert B. Sherman, and new songs and additional music and lyrics by George Stiles and Anthony Drewe.

The available roles are:

JANE BANKS: age 11 – 13; The high-spirited daughter of Mr. and Mr. Banks, is bright and precocious but can be willful and inclined to snobbishness.

MICHAEL BANKS: Age 9 – 10: The cute and cheeky son of Mr. and Mrs. Banks. Excitable and naughty, he adores his father and tries to be like him. Both he and Jane misbehave in order to get the attention of their parents.

For safety concerns, all auditionees and their accompanying parents must be fully vaccinated against COVID and must show proof of vaccination and a photo ID at the audition. Facial masks must be worn at all times except when actually auditioning. Auditionees and their parents are asked to not enter the CRT Downtown lobby until 15 minutes before their scheduled audition time.

Performers must be available for daytime and evening rehearsals/performances which run from July 19 – August 20, 2022. CRT is seeking disciplined, confident, and talented boys and girls of all races and nationalities for these roles.

Auditions will be held on Thursday, January 20 from 4:00 – 7:00 PM at CRT Downtown, 24 Port Watson Street, Cortland. A movement/dance callback will be held that evening, during which a brief movement combination will be taught to those individuals asked to stay.

To schedule a Youth Audition appointment time, please call 607-753-6161.

To prepare for the audition: Youth auditionees must provide a non-returnable photo and resume, listing any theatrical training and experience, and parent's name, phone and email. Auditionees must also prepare and perform part of a song, roughly 16 - 32 bars in length. A song from "Mary Poppins" is fine. Auditionees must supply their own sheet music, which must be clean, readable and clearly marked with the section they are singing. Pianist is provided. Auditionees should also come prepared with comfortable dance attire and shoes in case they are asked to attend the callback.

This is the time of year where people set up new fish tanks or redo tanks they have had awhile.

I get a lot of the same questions about tanks, so for all the new people, here are some helpful hints for a newly set up aquarium.

For warm water fish, let your tank run at least 48 hours to be sure your heater is keeping your water temperature stable.

Fish don't like up and down temps. 78 or 79 degrees is perfect.

Only add a few fish the first 4 to 5 weeks. There is a good bacteria that has to grow. Normally 3 to 4 small fish in a new 10 gallon, 5 to 6 small fish in a new 20 gallon, 6 to 7 fish in a new 30 gallon, and so on.

Your tank may get cloudy on week 3 or 4 but it's normal and will go away as your good bacteria grows more.

When you get home, only float your bag of fish for 3 to 5 minutes. Floating too long can kill them. Always take your fish straight home, the quicker they get out of the bag, the better.

Wait on an algae eater, there is no algae in a new tank.

Goldfish like cold water and tropical fish like warm water, so if you want to mix them, you'll just have to see how it goes. It doesn't always work.

Be sure to siphon water from the bottom of your tank once a month. That way, you can get rid of waste or old food that settles to the bottom.

Feed your fish 3 times a day. Feed just small amounts. Too much food will cause your water to get cloudy.

On hot days and cold days, take your fish right home after you buy them. They will do bad if they get too hot or too cold.

CORTLAND COUNTY TRIVIA FROM THE CORTLAND COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

In the last issue of the Cortland Area Tribune, we asked if you knew when the Cortland Water Works Company was established. Can you believe it's been around since 1884? Prior to 1884, the people of Cortland Village (not incorporated as a city until 1900) were perfectly happy with their wells and did not see a use for a public water system. Fire protection was one of the factors that necessitated the eventual establishment of the Cortland Water Works. Fire hydrants for fire protection were one of the first orders of business for the newly formed utility.

The Water Works that we know and love evolved over the decades, beginning with a spirit of public service and a commitment to doing more for the community. At various times, the Water Works has been a location for ice skating and for swimming! There has been a petting zoo that included raccoons, deer, swans, and peacocks. Many of the trees were planted in the 1920s and 1930s. At one time there was a lily pond supplied with lily pads from a local nursery. In 1951, there were four deer, all males. The herd has evolved over the years and is managed by Cortland Police Chief Paul Sandy who acts as a volunteer steward of the herd. Former Water Works employee Mike Dexter is the volunteer caregiver of the herd and makes sure they are well fed. The NYS Department of Agriculture has oversight over the deer at the Water Works. The lights at Christmas are an eagerly anticipated tradition that got started in 1949.

The Water Works is an important part of the Cortland community, and you can learn more if you go to our YouTube channel and search under "Lunch & Learn" for the talk given by Mike Dexter.

CORTLAND REPERTORY THEATRE ANNOUNCES 50TH ANNIVERSARY SUMMER SEASON FOR 2022

Cortland Repertory Theatre, one of New York State's longest running professional summer theatres, is announcing their 50th Anniversary summer season slated for 2022. This celebratory season is currently planned to be held inside the Little York Pavilion in Preble. Producing Artistic Director Kerby Thompson says that the theatre is not planning for an outdoor stage as was the case in 2021. "Thanks to generous foundation support, we have installed the latest air circulating and cleaning technology in the HVAC systems of all our facilities," Thompson says. "This system has been proved to be 99.3% effective in cleaning the air of Covid and other virus particles." In the fall of 2019, Cortland County replaced the air conditioning system in the Pavilion and CRT installed the new air purifiers this fall. "Of course, the summer is a long way away, and as we have learned, anything can happen." Thompson says. While the theatre has not created a definite health policy for the summer yet, Thompson says that facial masks and vaccination cards may still need to be standard procedure. "We will have to see where we are closer to the time." Thompson says.

In the meantime, the theatre's Board of Directors and Theatre Guild are planning the 50th celebration which will include special social media posts, in-person events, a souvenir program and a coffee-table book. "We have an exciting season with a lot of variety" Thompson says. "We are paying tribute to our past 50 years and looking forward to the next 50!"

Kicking off the season from June 8 – 18, CRT presents the groundbreaking rock musical HAIR with book and lyrics by Germone Ragni and James Rado, and music by Galt MacDermot. This American tribal love-rock musical is a celebration of the sixties counterculture with a collection of songs that became top radio hits, including Aquarius, Good Morning Starshine, and Let the Sun Shine. As relevant today as it was then, the musical explores ideas of identity, community, and global responsibility as it examines what it means to be a young person in a changing world. CRT cautions that the show will contain adult language and situations, simulated drug use, brief full nudity and sexually explicit scenes.

Next from June 22 – July 2, CRT revisits one of their most beloved comedies in their 50 years, with a revival of Joe DePietro's OVER THE RIVER AND THROUGH THE WOODS. First produced at CRT in 2005, this hysterical comedy is for, and about, the whole family. Nick Cristano is a young Italian American living in New York City who meets both sets of grandparents for dinner every Sunday. That is, until he accepts his dream job in Seattle. The news sets the grandparents reeling, and then scheming, as they find ways to keep him from moving - including playing matchmaker with a lovely young lady who has no idea what she's getting into. As one of CRT's highest attended plays, this is sure to be a popular ticket.

From July 6 – 16 is another CRT revival, a musical from the 1984 season, KISS ME, KATE with music and lyrics by Cole Porter, and book by Sam and Bella Spewack. It's "another opening of another show" and sparks are flying both onstage and off when egomaniacal director-and-star Fred Graham attempts to produce a musical version of The Taming of the Shrew, with his leading lady (and ex-wife) Lilli Vanessi as his co-star. Mix in a flirtatious ingenue, her gambler boyfriend and a couple of musically inclined gangsters, and it's the recipe for a sharp and witty evening of big laughs, hot dancing and classic Cole Porter tunes. Familiar songs include So In Love, Too Darn Hot, Always True to You (In My Fashion), and From This Moment On.

Agatha Christie mysteries have been hugely popular at CRT and the theatre pays tribute to these past productions with the regional premiere of the new stage version of Christie's classic MURDER ON THE ORIENT EXPRESS, adapted by Ken Ludwig, running from July 20-30. On a winter's evening in 1934, a snowdrift stops the luxurious Orient Express literally in its tracks. By morning, an American tycoon lies dead in his compartment, stabbed, his door locked from the inside. With a long list of suspects, detective Hercule Poirot must identify the murderer before they strike again. A perfect balance of the cerebral and the comic, Ludwig's adaptation creates a thrill-a-minute ride.

Ending their season, from August 3 – 20, CRT presents a family favorite musical adapted for the stage: Disney and Cameron Mackintosh's MARY POPPINS, based on the stories of P.L. Travers and the Walt Disney film. The stage script was written by Julian Fellowes and contains the original music and lyrics by Richard M. Sherman and Robert B. Sherman, with new songs and additional music and lyrics by George Stiles and Anthony Drewe. The charming story of the "practically perfect" nanny comes to life before your family's eyes as Bert, a chimney sweep and jack-of-all trades, introduces the troubled Banks family. Young Jane and Michael have sent many a nanny packing before Mary Poppins arrives on their doorstep. Using a combination of magic and common sense, she must teach the family members how to value each other again. All those favorite songs are included: Chim Chiminey, A Spoonful of Sugar, Feed the Birds, Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious plus some new "classic" tunes.

CRT reminds patrons that youth tickets for "22 and Unders" are available for $25.00 each, and a special Youth Flex Pass is offered with 2 tickets for $40.00. Adult tickets range from $36.00 to $38.00 with discounts available for seniors, members of the military, first responders, and groups of 10 or more.

Information on all CRT shows and events, as well as ticket prices and box office hours are available at www.cortlandrep.org. Discount ticket "Specialty Nights" include Educator's Nights on the first Thursday and "30 Below Date Nights" on the first Saturday of each show run. Friday Night Talk Back are held after the performances on the first Friday of each show. Gift certificates are available for tickets, subscriptions, flex passes or a monetary value. Individual tickets will go on sale starting May 23, 2022. Call 800-427-6160 for more information.
