SHOP LOCAL, CELEBRATE FAMILY, AND DISCOVER SOMETHING SPECIAL AT ROBINSON FAMILY JEWELERS

4077 West Rd., Cortland
607-543-4044
robinsonfamilyjewelers.com

Shop Local. Shop Family. Give Something Special.

THIS HOLIDAY SEASON, SHOP SMALL, give big, and support the businesses that make our community shine!

At Robinson Family Jewelers, we believe that shopping local is about so much more than making a purchase. It's about supporting your neighbors, strengthening our community, and keeping family traditions alive. As a family-owned jewelry store, we understand the importance of family, meaningful connections, and celebrating life's special moments.

This Black Friday and Small Business Saturday, we invite you to experience everything our newly expanded showroom has to offer!

With our recent move to a beautiful, larger location, we've made room for more than ever before. While we're still proud to offer the stunning jewelry you've come to know and love, we've also expanded our selection to include exciting new gifts for everyone on your holiday shopping list.

Of course, you'll still find an incredible selection of sparkling diamonds, engagement rings, wedding bands, necklaces, bracelets, earrings, and unique pieces that make life's special occasions unforgettable. Whether you're looking for a timeless classic, a one-of-a-kind treasure, or a custom creation, we're here to help you find something truly meaningful.

But this year, there's even more to discover!

Explore our growing collection of men's and women's watches, including Seiko and Glock, along with distinctive pocket knives, collectible Goat Guns miniature models, minerals, decorations, crystal, and other unique holiday gifts. From the jewelry lover to the hard-to-shop-for guy, we've worked hard to bring you a selection that offers something for everyone.

What hasn't changed is our commitment to the personal service and genuine care that make shopping at a family jeweler different. When you walk through our doors, you're not just another customer. You're part of the community we're proud to serve.

And as a special thank-you for shopping local, we're offering a FREE GIFT with every purchase over $100 during our Black Friday and Small Business Saturday celebration!

This holiday season, skip the ordinary and discover the joy of shopping somewhere that knows the value of family, tradition, and community.

From our family to yours, thank you for supporting Robinson Family Jewelers and helping local businesses continue to shine for generations to come.

"HOLIDAY SPECIAL: AS SEEN ON TV" COMES TO CCHS DECEMBER 5

2 p.m.
9 Grace St., Cortland
cortlandhistory.org

IT'S TIME TO HAUL OUT the holly, gather the whole family and tune in! The Cortland County Historical Society presents "Holiday Special: As Seen on TV," a cabaret performance featuring the Musical Theatre majors of SUNY Cortland, on Saturday, Dec. 5, at 2 p.m. at 9 Grace St., Cortland.

Do you remember crowding around the TV for the season's must-see specials? This afternoon brings that magic to life, with staged musical numbers from intimate solos to full-company showstoppers. Look for the Peanuts gang, a certain red-nosed reindeer and the sparkle of the Lawrence Welk and Judy Garland variety shows, plus a few holiday favorites and a chance to sing along.

Afterward, you can deck the halls with us at a reception with holiday punch, cookies and other sweet treats.

Tickets are $15 and are available at cortland-county-historical-society-inc.square.site/shop/events/6 or at the door. With only 130 seats, they'll go faster than a one-horse open sleigh! Your purchase supports the Cortland County Historical Society and its mission.

If you have any questions about the show or tickets, please call 607-756-6071.

WE WISH YOU A MERRY THRIFTMAS

279 Rte. 13, Cortland
thesecondknob.com

By Shana Karn, Owner The Second Knob Warehouse Vendor Mall

"Thriftmas" is a holiday movement focused on giving secondhand, vintage, or upcycled gifts instead of buying brand-new items. Thriftmas promotes the idea that secondhand gifts are completely appropriate and amazing presents to both give and receive. While it is just gaining momentum, the term "Thriftmas" has been around for a few years. And, while you may think thrifting gifts means you HAVE TO buy "old" or "antique" items, that is not the case (but it is an option). A thrift-gift is pre-loved, vintage, antique, or handmade, either sourced from a vendor mall, thrift store, flea market, estate sale, or passed down as a family heirloom rather than bought brand-new from a big box store or pricey boutique.

Most consumers agree that adopting a Thriftmas tradition is a fun, budget-friendly way to source unique, high-quality items while cutting down on holiday waste. Some friends and family go "all out" with Thriftmas and commit to the movement with excitement and enthusiasm! There is no doubt that $20 at a secondhand shop, thrift store or Vendor Mall like TSK Warehouse in Cortland, goes a lot further than $20 at big box stores!

Propose a White Elephant Thriftmas Between Friends: A White Elephant gift exchange is also referred to as "Dirty Santa" or a "Yankee Swap." No matter what you call it, it is a popular holiday party game where participants bring wrapped, anonymous gifts and take turns selecting, opening, or "stealing" them from one another. Add some excitement by proposing that each person must thrift their anonymous gift and have a vote at the end of the night to determine who thrifted it best! The winner receives a Thriftmas Trophy and one year of bragging rights!

Another great idea is "One New One Used!" Set a budget and commit to buying one brand new gift AND one used gift. Split your budget how you see fit but don't be surprised when your thrifting dollars stretch a lot further!

Regardless of how you choose to incorporate Thriftmas, there are three very basic rules you will want to consider:

1. Don't force the movement on people who aren't open to it.

2. Before hitting the Vendor Mall or Thrift Store, keep in mind exactly who you are shopping for and your budget. There is something so special about combing through items and finding a piece that instantly reminds you of a specific person!

3. Stay focused and Inspect Quality. Avoid thrifting objects that are broken, stained, or missing pieces. Nobody wants to receive a damaged gift.

Whether you jump on the Thriftmas movement or stick with brand new gifts, I encourage you to shop small and shop local; stop at TSK Warehouse Vendor Mall where we carry a little bit of everything (new gift lines, antiques, vintage, and thrift)! With over thirty vendors in one location, it is a great one-stop shop this year! We are open Tues & Wed 10-5, Thurs-Sat 9-6 and even Sunday 10-4! And don't forget to check out our online auctions—where you will find amazing deals and unique finds (thesecondknob.com)
